Tjugonde Dag Jul

this month Dansk Jul & Lucia

This December, the Scandinavian Club welcomes all to the annual Christmas celebration which will feature a Danish themed celebration followed by the traditional Swedish Luciatåg (Lucia train). In addition, there will be children's crafts.

Traditionally, most Scandinavian countries celebrate Christmas on the 24th of December (Swedish: julafton, Danish: juleaften). This is the evening where a big dinner is served after which the presents are opened all while the fireplace is lit with a crackling fire. In the old days, and still today, midnight mass is often attended and on Christmas day (Swedish: juldagen, Danish: juledag) families often congregate at a relative's house for further celebrations.

This years Lucia will be Erika Whipps.

ODE Musik are made up of Olle Linder (percussion, guitar and vocals), Emilia Amper (nyckelharpa and vocals), & Dan Svensson (percussions, vocals, guitar). This trio performs Swedish folk music and will be performing on Monday, February 8th, at the Maynard Avenue United Methodist Church right here in Columbus. "The setting and sound is full of rhythmical influences from Sweden, West Africa, Latin America and the Middle East, from traditional music, contemporary folk and pop. (source: www.odemusik.com).
